SAVE WITH A HEALTH SAVINGS ACCOUNT (HSA)

An HSA allows you to set aside pretax dollars to pay for qualified medical expenses. Check with your human resources manager for details.

You may also choose a health reimbursement arrangement (HRA). Usually, an HRA makes you ineligible for an HSA. Check with your human resources manager for details.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR PAYMENTS

Each plan year, your deductible is the amount you must pay toward covered medical services before your health plan begins to pay its share. All non-preventive care services are subject to the deductible.³

Each plan year, your out-of-pocket maximum is the highest amount you must pay toward covered medical services before your health plan begins to cover all costs.⁴ This excludes service charges that exceed the maximum allowable charge.

FAMILY PLAN PAYMENTS

Family plans have no individual deductible (described above). Instead, you have a family deductible that can be met by one or more family members. Once the family deductible is met, your health plan begins to pay its share for covered services for all family members.

Family plans have both an individual out-of-pocket maximum (described above) and family out-of-pocket maximum that can be met by one or more family members. Once the family out-of-pocket maximum is met, your health plan begins to cover all costs for all family members.
